BLUE PRAIRIE GROUP ANNOUNCES NEW STRATEGIC PARTNERSHIP

October 21, 2009 – Chicago, IL – Blue Prairie Group, a Chicago-based full service investment and human resource consulting firm, is pleased to announce a new strategic partnership with The Stockholm Companies, a well-established and respected executive search firm. “As a complement to our Human Resource Consulting Practice, we can now help our clients fill some of the most challenging and important executive roles in their organizations.” stated Matt Gnabasik, Blue Prairie Group’s Managing Director

John Savas, Blue Prairie Group’s Partner and Human Resource Practice Leader further commented, “Our executive search process begins with a critical assessment of the organization’s hiring needs. We not only develop the position description, but we also use a proprietary cultural assessment tool that will allow us to better understand and document our clients’ unique culture thus ensuring a better fit and a higher level of continued success.”

By leveraging our human resource capabilities with best practices in the search business, Blue Prairie Group now has the ability to offer a unique service proposition. “We consider these additional strategic hiring services to be so important that we include them in every search, at no extra charge,” stated Savas.
